

Blake & Mortimer #11: The Gondwana Shrine

Yves SENTE. ~Illustrated by Andre Juillard~

Based on the characters of E.P. Jacobs

Paperback, 64pp, 287x217mm, 9781849180948, $16.95

Suitable for: 10+ years.

In this Blake & Mortimer adventure ... Several months after their adventures in Antarctica, Blake and Mortimer are back in England. Still somewhat shaken after his ordeal, the professor is ordered by his doctor to get some rest. In typical Mortimer fashion, he decides to spend his holidays in Africa ... looking for a lost civilisation!

Accompanied by Nastasia Wardynska and an old flame of his, he begins tracking down a culture that is older than any ever recorded — but someone is dogging their every step ...

Darwin's Dairies #1: The Eye of the Celts [New Series]

Sylvain RUNBERG. ~Illustrated by Eduardo Ocana~

Paperback, 56pp, 257x184mm, 9781849180955, $15.95

Suitable for: 15+ years.

Charles Darwin is known as the Father of Evolution. But his hidden diaries reveal that he studied other, less natural things as well ...

Victorian England. In Yorkshire, several men and horses working on a railway line have been killed — slaughtered, really. The police suspect some kind of wild beast.

The government calls upon controversial naturalist Charles Darwin to help with the investigation. A reasonable move, but one that is dictated rather by the least known part of his work: research on what other people would qualify as legendary creatures. It won't be long before the scientist discovers that he may be right about them after all ...

Key Points: ■ A story by the author of best-selling series Orbital ■ A new fantasy series firmly anchored in Victorian England, wonderfully reminiscent of classics such as Frankenstein and Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde ■ Superb, moody art well-suited to the atmosphere.
